

BIO - Tom M. Onich CTP

President TCMI

Toms experience and professional accreditation as a Certified Turnaround Professional “CTP” place him in the top five percent of turnaround professionals worldwide.

He has acted as advisor and has served as Chief Restructuring Officer, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer in a diverse range of distressed organizations where he successfully directed a number of complex and difficult corporate renewals in a broad range of business sectors. These include; structural steel, garment manufacturing, yacht building, agricultural equipment distribution, retail franchises, food processing, commercial baking and health care.

The scope of these reorganizations includes informal and statutory financial restructuring in the United States and in Canada. Tom is one of only a few turnaround professionals experienced with the insolvency laws and procedures of both countries.

Prior to his work in corporate renewal Tom was engaged in corporate lending with a major Canadian bank winning several awards for innovative solutions which supported client needs. His extensive knowledge of lending practices allows him to effectively assist clients in enhancing and restructuring their capital structure.

Tom successfully completed the stringent accreditation process of The Association of Turnaround Professionals “ACTP” and was awarded the Certified Turnaround Professional designation in 2001. He also holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance with Honors standing from Brock University in Canada.

Articles authored by Tom have been published in the Journal of Corporate Renewal, the Secured Lender, the Commercial Lending Review, and the Provider. He is a member of the Turnaround Management Association “TMA”, the American Bankruptcy Institute “ABI” and International Association of Insolvency Professionals “INSOL.”

He is the founder and President of TCMI Limited with offices in Buffalo and Toronto
